SINGAPORE NAVAL BASE PROPONENTS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Victory Comes After Spirited Debate in the House of Commons 217 to 130—Opponents Claim it is Against Spirit of Washington Agreement and Provocative of Wars

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, July 19.—After a spirited debate in the house of commons tonight on the merits and demerits of the Singapore naval base, the government obtained a victorious vote, carrying the naval estimates under closure by 217 to 130.

The opponents of the Singapore project bitterly complained that it was against the spirit of the Washington agreement and would lead to competition in armaments and to future wars. The first lord of the admiralty, Lieutenant Colonel L. S. Amery, in behalf of the government, strongly repudiated these suggestions and reiterated that all delegates at Washington clearly understood that Great Britain was retaining full freedom of action regarding Singapore, which had always been a naval and military station.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY FINISH ALASKA VISIT

Officials Plan Future Policies Toward This Territory

(By The Associated Press)
ABOARD U. S. S. Henderson, With President Harding, July 19.—The consensus of officials in President Harding's party, fixed as the conclusion of an inspection of Alaska approaches, is that the territory will gradually develop, but that no sensational boom can be expected, as a result of the visit of the chief executive.

President Harding, Secretaries Work, Hoover and Wallace and the remainder of the presidential party arrived at Valdez today and are voyaging to Cordova and Sitka, the two stops remaining before Vancouver, B. C., which the Henderson is to reach next Thursday proceeding to the United States at Seattle the following day. Mr. Hoover is expected to make his Alaskan policy clear in a statement to be issued soon. It is understood that the statement will be confined largely to fisheries, probably suggesting the creation of additional fishing reservations with a view to conserving the supply by protecting it from excessively rapid harvesting.

Alaska Homestead Law
Dr. Work is said to favor amplification of the homestead laws so that patents to lands in Alaska may be issued more quickly. He is believed to be of the opinion that the Harding administration would be unjustified in recommending to congress large appropriations for Alaskan development but to assent to the proposals that congress should provide for developments as they are needed.

Mr. Wallace has already announced his conviction that agricultural development in Alaska will be slow and that farmers in the territory have many difficulties to overcome before they can put the industry on a plane where success is assured.

DEFENSE RESTS IN TRIAL OF LAWSON ET AL.

Lumberton, N. C., July 19.—(By The A. P.)—The defense late today rested in the trial of Mike Lawson, Jule Brogden and Johnson Hedgpath, alleged members of the Ku Klux Klan on charges growing out of the whipping of Mrs. Hattie Purvis and Mrs. Mary Watson, by masked men on April 14.—The state began immediately the introduction of rebuttal testimony by calling Conrad Purvis, sixteen year old son of Mrs. Purvis and Norine Watson, eighteen year old daughter of the other victim, as witnesses.

Irish Free State Will Join League

(By The Associated Press)
GENEVA, July 19.—President Cosgrave with a strong delegation from the Irish free state will probably come to Geneva for the annual meeting of the assembly of the league of nations in September, when the free state is expected to be elected a member of the league. This announcement was made today by Michael MacWhite, permanent representative of the free state here.

"The rest assured that Ireland will have her own independent program toward the league," said Mr. MacWhite. "We are not tied up with other European nations as most of the members of the league are, and we feel by our very independence that we can do good."

INTREPID AIR MAN FAILS IN NEWEST TRIAL

Oil Leak Forces Lieut. Maughan to Land in Wyoming

(By The Associated Press)
ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., July 19.—Failure greeted the second attempt within ten days of Lieutenant Russell L. Maughan, intrepid army aviator, to span the continent of North America between dawn and dusk today when an oil leak forced him to land here at 5:08 P. M. (Mountain Time).

He had covered more than two thirds of the distance across the United States, a total of 1,925 miles, and he was speeding toward his goal at the rate of 170 miles an hour after leaving three of his five scheduled stopping points behind him, when he was forced to descend.

A tiny stream of oil spurting from an almost invisible aperture in the oil cooler of the Curtiss pursuit plane necessitated the cancellation of the flight.

A similar leak had caused nearly an hour's delay at Cheyenne, Wyo., his third stopping place, shortly after noon today, and Maughan was driving his motor at top speed to regain the time which had been lost.

Oil Cooler Leaking
For more than 200 miles westward from Cheyenne, the motor raced smoothly, but at Rock Springs, the cooler suddenly began to leak. Maughan passed over the air mail field at 4:58 P. M., determined to continue to Salt Lake, Utah, the next stopping place.

As the fumes from the escaping oil became stronger, he realized the futility of continuing, turned back and landed at the field.

A brief examination by two pilots convinced Maughan that it would be impossible to reach San Francisco before darkness closed in.

Bitterly disappointed at the failure of his second attempt to cross the continent when success seemed almost assured, Maughan made a cursory examination of the oil cooler and strode from the air mail field to a Rock Springs hotel to retire for the night.

Maughan Feeling Well
"How do you feel, Russell?" he was asked by The Associated Press correspondent.

"Well, how would you feel?" he replied.

"I noticed that leak in the cooler near North Platte, Nebraska, but it was not very bad. I thought we had it fixed at Cheyenne but it became worse as I drove on. Twenty miles out of Rock Springs it began to leak in buckets. I thought best to quit. I am not very tired, and could easily have gone to San Francisco."

"Wasn't it wonderful?" exclaimed the aviator suddenly. "I think it was a wonderful thing even if I didn't complete the task."

Gloom in New York
Mitchell Field, New York, July 19.—Gloom overspread the army post tonight after news of Lieutenant Russell L. Maughan's failure to reach San Francisco in his race with the sun. Officers who had gathered at a Long Island hotel for a banquet where they expected to drink a toast to the success of their comrade, returned slowly to the field.

They made no effort to hide their keen disappointment.

But there was no criticism of Lieutenant Maughan. It was plain "hard luck" the officers agreed. All were sure he would succeed when he did try again.

TEXAS PLANS WARM RECEPTION FOR THE I. W. W. DELEGATION

Dallas County Sheriff Will Arrest on Vagrancy Charge

(By The Associated Press)
DALLAS, Texas, July 19.—Industrial workers of the world, reportedly to be 25,000 strong and on their way to Port Arthur to protest alleged mistreatment of three of their members there will get a personal reception in Dallas county, Sheriff Dan Harston and District Attorney Shelby S. Cox decided today.

"Everyone that I can get hold of will be lodged in the Dallas county jail," Sheriff Harston asserted. "Vagrancy charges will be pressed against any arrested. District Attorney Cox declared.

"If enough of them come thru, county road gangs are going to have plenty of men to fix up the roads."

To Station Deputies
Plans already have been laid by Sheriff Harston to have deputies stationed at vantage points along the county roads and railway lines. They will have orders to arrest every member they lay their eyes on and to shoot in case of organized resistance.

At the same time the officials made their announcement to the local John W. Low Post of the American Legion pledged its support to Port Arthur officials by wire. The telegram follows:

"To Commander of American Legion Post, Port Arthur: Support Pledged.

"Press dispatches state 25,000 I. W. W. hobnobbing their way to uphold I. W. W. constitution. This is probably their hot air propaganda, but there are 200,000 ex-service men in Texas of whom $500 are in Dallas county. We offer thru the American Legion to help uphold the American constitution. We know there are enough rock piles in the south to keep them busy for a while, and of the 25,000 probably less than 25 will get there for you to employ. Let us help you in all lawful ways. Texans can take care of their rights."

No action will be taken against I. W. W. members in Dallas by federal officers unless they start some kind of disturbance according to Harry Bishop, acting head of the department of justice.

"There is no law against a man belonging to the organization and the federal authorities will take no action against them unless they attempt to violate the law," Bishop said.

DISCUSS RENEWAL OF U. S. FRANCE TREATY

Secretary Hughes and the French Ambassador, Jules Jusserand, signed the agreement.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 19.—The United States and France today renewed their treaty of arbitration without change for another period of five years. The treaty originally signed in Washington in 1908, had been renewed twice at five year intervals.

Secretary Hughes and the French ambassador, Jules Jusserand, signed the agreement.

Later the state department announced that notes were exchanged at the signing of the agreement to the effect that in case the senate agrees to participation by the United States in the world court the two governments will consider the making of an agreement under which disputes of the nature described in the treaty could be referred to the court.

EARY OF NORTHEAST WEDS FOLLIES GIRL

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 19.—The Earl of Northesk and Miss Jessica Brown, former Follies girl, were married here tonight in the offices of Frank T. Jordan, her attorney. Judge John R. Caverly performed the ceremony.

DROWNED WHEN PLANE DIVES INTO HARBOR

Boston, July 19.—One man was drowned and another was injured when an airplane dived into Boston harbor tonight. The victim was John Stevens of Littleton, N. H. Lieutenant Caldwell S. Phillips of Boston, who was piloting the plane, was injured in the wreckage but was rescued.

The Real Object of Bok's Peace Prize

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 19.—To start people thinking, out of which some practicable plan for peace may be formed, was declared by Frank A. Vanderlip, banker, to be the purpose of the Bok peace prize of $100,000.

"The award is not in itself to settle problems, nor to call for a ready made cure for world ills," Mr. Vanderlip said. "It is more to focus public attention on world affairs and to enable formulation of ideas of international accord."

Problems Perplexing
"I admit prospects for world peace are perplexing enough to make full accomplishment of the aims of the award seem almost impossible. The Versailles treaty was a harsh settlement with no magnanimity in it.

"Central Europe is full of bitterness.

"Yet I am not a pessimist. I believe it will be possible to find some way out of the tangle in which the world has been caught."

Says Time is Ripe
Mrs. Vanderlip, a member of the executive committee concerned with the management of the awards, declared "the time is ripe to crystallize into definite proposals a general belief that the American government cannot remain aloof at a moment of world transition."

"What Mr. Bok has sought to do," she said, "means simply teaching Americans to think internationally."

BRITAIN HAVING DIFFICULTY WITH NOTE TO GERMANY

Believed Lord Curzon Endeavoring to Effect Compromise

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, July 19.—Another cabinet council has been summoned for tomorrow to consider further the draft of the British reply to Germany on reparations. This announcement was made late tonight.

Lord Curzon is experiencing more difficulty in the preparation of his note to Germany than had been expected. It is now reported that the note and the covering letter may not be despatched to the allies until next week, but whether the trouble has arisen from political friction within the cabinet, as alleged in some quarters or simply from the inherent difficulty of framing a reply to Germany which would not offend France is not evident.

Confers With Premier
After today's long cabinet council the foreign secretary had a separate conference with Premier Baldwin. The conference which was at Downing street prevented Lord Curzon from seeing Count DeSaint-Aulaire, the French ambassador, who called at the foreign office while the conversation was proceeding.

It is believed although nothing is known officially, that Curzon is making the greatest efforts to find a way of compromise of the question of passive resistance in the Ruhr. He has had conversations with the German ambassador, the latest of which was yesterday, probably with the idea of finding how far the German government might be willing to recede from its support of the passive resistance movement, provided France could be induced to revert to merely civil occupation of the Ruhr.

Effort to Save Face
This question is considered to present far greater difficulty than the question of assessing Germany's capacity to pay, as it is a point on which neither the French nor the German government is disposed to yield, and if some middle ground could be discovered to save the faces of the two governments, it is believed that the financial points could be cleared up with less difficulty.

BUY A BARREL OF FLOUR NEW SLOGAN ASKED

Campaign Started to Stimulate Investment Buying

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 19.—Several leaders on the Chicago Board of Trade, including L. F. Gates, Joseph P. Griffin and Robert McDougal, each of whom has served several terms as president of the board today said they favored higher grain prices.

Regarding the campaign which has for its slogan "Buy 1000 of wheat" and "buy a barrel of flour" Mr. Gates said:

"The campaign to stimulate investment buying of wheat in small quantities seems not only reasonable but feasible.

"The withdrawal of large speculative support during the past three months has been generally attributed to the supreme court decision relative to what is commonly known as the Capper-Tincher act or the grain futures act. Commission houses have not been able to rally enough support for smaller traders to offset the loss of traders in large quantities and sponsors of the law have apparently made no effort to do so, although claiming that the law would stimulate general supply to more than offset the loss of large speculative dealings."

Joseph P. Griffin said:

"The grain trade, in common with business in general would welcome an advance in the price of the principal farm products. The price of wheat is fixed by the world's supply and demand situation whereas corn and practically all other staple products, excepting cotton, have their values determined by domestic conditions. Measured in dollars the wheat crop is not as important as many other crops. However, it possesses a psychological influence being considered generally as the basic commodity of the world. Wheat prices are depressed because of the financial breakdown of peoples and countries who normally buy your surplus. It is being demonstrated that political demagoguery and agitation is no adequate substitute for demand. Until bankrupt Europe is in a financial position to buy the surplus wheat from the American farmer, it is not likely that prices of this commodity will materially advance."

INDIANA CHAIRMAN WELCOMED BY NEW

(By The Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 19.—Harry S. New, postmaster general in addressing the meeting which welcomed Clyde C. Wall, of La Grange, as the new Republican state chairman, declared that President Harding would be the party's standard bearer in the presidential election next year. The party platform will be based on the record of the President, Mr. New said.

"I never saw a more auspicious opening of a campaign in Indiana than this one today," the postmaster general said, adding that long before time for the election you are going to find that "elephant preferred" is selling a lot better than "jackass common."

RECOMMENDS MENTAL TESTS FOR DRIVERS

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 19.—A mental as well as physical test for all persons expecting to drive an automobile was recommended to the city safety commission by Judge Walker of the speeders' court he announced today. Judge Walker said he believed hundreds of persons whose minds are affected are driving cars on Chicago streets. He said he would also recommend color tests, tests for possible deafness and would require the driver to be able to read ordinary traffic signs.

NOTED ARCHITECT DIES IN CHICAGO

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 19.—William Holabird, architect noted for having originated the skeleton type of building and who was responsible for the use of the sub-basement space in Chicago died today at his home in Evanston after a long illness.

Many of the chief public and office buildings in Chicago were designed by Mr. Holabird and constructed under his direction. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and a son.

PULMOTOR USED; REVIVES INFANT

Ponca City, Okla., July 19.—After physicians had spent a full hour in an attempt to revive a new born infant firemen came to their rescue with a pulmotor today. After a few minutes application the baby began to breathe regularly and physicians said they expect him to develop normally.

FOUR OF CREW ARE KILLED IN WRECK

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., July 19.—Four members of the crew of a freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad were killed tonight when the engine left the track and went over an embankment, three miles northeast of here.

MANDATORY POWERS TO SUBMIT REPORTS ON ADMINISTRATION

Permanent Mandate Commission of League of Nations to Meet—United States Not a Member But Has Special Interest—Slavery and Labor Questions Coming Up

(By The Associated Press)
GENEVA, July 19.—The United States has a special interest in the action to be taken on the reports of the mandatory powers which will be presented at the meeting of the permanent mandate commission of the league of nations tomorrow, because the Washington government, having negotiated a treaty with Japan over Yap Island, is now engaged in preserving American rights in all other mandated territories.

The United States is negotiating separate conventions with the other countries under the Aegis of the league. To secure impartiality a majority of the members of the commission are citizens of non-mandatory countries; their task will be scrupulously to examine all reports and present their advice to the league.

The supreme league system, from developing into something akin to annexation and to insure the establishment of a world colony policy under international supervision. Each administering country will be stimulated thru publicity and the resultant force of public opinion to exercise the best possible government for the many millions people under its control.

Though not a member of the league the United States has never abandoned her rights concerning mandated lands, so that indirectly she bears a certain relation to this activity of the league.

To Conserve Interests
The chief interest of the league is to ascertain whether the territories are being governed in the highest interest of the native populations formerly under Turkish or German rule. England has the greater part of German East Africa, Mesopotamia and Palestine under mandate, Australia has New Guinea, while New Zealand has Samoa. The Pacific Island north of the equator were turned over to Japan, France received Syria, and the major part of Togoland and Kamerun, and Belgium the district of German East Africa bordering on the German Congo.

Separate reports will also be submitted on the question of slavery and labor in the affected territories, as well as education and the liquor traffic. The inaugural session tomorrow will be public under the presidency of Marquis Theodor, formerly colonial under-secretary of Italy.

FIGHT TO ESTABLISH RIGHT TO ORGANIZE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 19.—A quarter of a million dollars will be spent, if necessary to establish the right of the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union to organize workers in the Chicago dress industry, Meyer Perlestein, vice president of the organization declared today. The union was restrained a few days ago in federal court from trying in any manner to organize the dress makers employed by the Mitchell brothers company on the ground that the employees were under contract with the company not to join a union. Perlestein said the case would be taken to the United States supreme court if necessary.

NEW BUILDING OPEN FOR COTTON EXCHANGE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 19.—The New York Cotton Exchange, where for half a century world's cotton supplies have been bartered, will occupy its palatial new trading rooms on the nineteenth floor of the recently opened Cotton Exchange building tomorrow at 2 p. m. In so doing it will be the first New York exchange to leave the street level.

The opening ceremonies will be attended by cotton men from all over the world. Colonel John J. Shute, former president of the Liverpool Cotton Exchange, will be one of the noted guests and speakers.

MOTHER KLAN TO QUIT ORGANIZATION

ATLANTA, Ga., July 19.—Nathan Bedford Forrest, Klan No. 1, of Atlanta, known as "the mother Klan of the world" adopted a resolution tonight "to at no time in the future recognize, contribute to or in any manner affiliate with the national organization of the first order of the Ku Klux Klan, until such time as the national organization has been purged and definite officials placed in control."

HEART DISEASE TAKES PROMINENT ADMIRAL

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 19.—Rear Admiral Charles Dwight Sigsbee, who commanded the Battleship Maine when she was blown up in Havana Harbor on February 15, 1898, during the Cuban rebellion against Spain, died today at his home in this city of heart disease. The admiral who was 78, had been in failing health for two years, but the seriousness of his condition was not generally known.

Funeral plans, which tonight had not been completed, called for burial at Arlington next Monday of one of the most picturesque figures in the history of the United States navy. Not only the admiral who won fame as a man of action, but he was widely known as an inventor and a writer of naval subjects.

BLACK RUST DAMAGE ALMOST NEGLIGIBLE

(By The Associated Press)
WINNIPEG, Man., July 19.—Damage to Western Canada's wheat crop from black rust so far is so slight that it is practically negligible, it was said tonight by authoritative organizations responsible for the compilation of crop reports. These assertions contradicted Chicago advices reflecting adverse conditions.

It was declared that with favorable weather for the next fortnight rust damage would in no way be serious.

These organizations were unable to account for the basis of Chicago advices declaring that "current reports from the Canadian northwest indicated danger of serious damage from black rust."

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Lawless of Winchester were Jacksonville visitors yesterday.

DEMOCRAT OUT FOR GOVERNOR OF THIS STATE

Former Judge Thomas of E. St. Louis a Candidate

(Special correspondence will appear)
EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 19.—Former Judge C. B. Thomas of this city, told the Associated Press tonight that he would be a Democratic candidate for nomination for governor of Illinois at next year's primary election.

This announcement, he said, was made in reply to many requests he had received from his political friends to enter the gubernatorial race.

Judge Thomas, who is a United States referee in bankruptcy, has been well known in Democratic circles of the Southern part of Illinois. In 1914 he was a candidate for state treasurer, running against the present governor, Len Small. Tho he ran far ahead of his ticket at the election his race was unsuccessful.

Claims Strong Backing
Judge Thomas came here from McLeanboro, Ill., 12 years ago. He said he had the backing of many political leaders of the Southern part of the state. According to political rumors, Chicago Democrats have decided that the gubernatorial candidate shall be a man from Southern Illinois and they will support the candidate who has the strongest backing in Southern Illinois.

It is also said that a meeting of representatives of all county organizations has been decided upon to be held at Chicago next winter when the Democratic leaders of the state will pick their candidates for governor for the offices to be filled by election.

"LAW — NOT WAR"

The ninth anniversary of the outbreak of the World War is approaching. Cities in 36 states, all over the country, are planning to make their observance of the day a plea for the ending of all war. Their slogan is "Law — Not War."

Joining in such observances are organizations advocating specific programs such as the Permanent Court of International Justice and the League of Nations office, and also other groups interested only in the substitution of law for war, by whatever means may be found workable and suitable.

Eighteen other nations will hold simultaneous demonstrations against war. This is a fitting way to observe the anniversary of the most terrible war the world has ever seen. But what will it all amount to? On a given day hundreds of organizations will unite in the expression of a common preference for peace. The day after their widespread celebrations, they will be hundreds of disunited groups with as many separate formulas for the establishment of peace.

Or will they really work at peace as they worked to win the war?

A HOPEFUL EDUCATOR.

A retiring school superintendent in a middle western town closes his 44 years of service as an educator with expressions of hope for American education. "I see improved attitudes in the public, in the teachers, in the students and in the homes," he says. "I have seen a revolution in the field of education, and I am sure the tendencies now are most hopeful."

Too many frills, too much superficial skimming with too little real education, wrong educational ideas and wrong methods, are among the criticisms that are frequently hurled at schools in this country today. It is therefore well to consider the reasons given by an experienced educator for believing that there is more good than bad in present day education. "We are making education more scientific because we are seeking causes, defining purposes, adapting means to ends, measuring results, making inferences from statistics and establishing research centers. There is a constant re-definition of education. Perpetual readjustment spells progress."

Teaching is again being recognized as a real profession. The public is showing more willingness to increase educational budgets and to make an interest in the making of the budgets.

This educator does not boast perfection of schools. He simply points out that they are meeting many of the needs of humanity and will continue to meet them if present tendencies are developed.

THE HEAVENLY MAP.

There is one map now nearing completion which was begun in 1887 and to the making of which experts from 18 nations have contributed their scientific observation and skill.

This is a map of the heavens, including a compilation of the stars as far as man's knowledge of them goes. Stars to the sixth magnitude may be seen by the naked eye. The map shows stars to the fourteenth magnitude, of which there are some 20,000,000. Astronomers now estimate that there are 300,000,000 heavenly bodies visible through powerful telescopes. And with the construction of more powerful lenses more stars continue to appear. As human counting goes, the number appears to be infinite.

Perhaps increasing knowledge of the vastness of the starry heavens makes the importance of our own small Earth seem to dwindle to nothing. Is it not, in reality, greatly enhanced? To be even a small part of such a wonderfully great beautiful universe is thrilling and glorious.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD
By NELLIE MAXWELL

OUT OF THE COOKY JAR

COOKIES of various kinds will keep indefinitely (when carefully concealed, and may be made from the foundation mixture into dozens of varieties, shapes and kinds. A good standard recipe which may be enlarged upon to suit various tastes is the following:

Plain Cookies.—Take one cupful of fat, one cupful of sugar, one-fourth cupful of milk, one egg, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, flavor as liked, and two cupfuls of flour. For most families the bother of making cookies will encourage you to double this recipe. Mix and let stand on ice to chill and season. This not only helps greatly in rolling out but takes less flour and the cookies are better flavored.

Nuts, raisins, dates, figs, spices and seeds of various kinds may be added to give variety. A spoonful of cocoa or chocolate or a frosting of maple, caramel or chocolate adds variety. The shape the cookies are cut will make them more alluring even to the grownups.

Delightful little cakes decorated with the crackle animals dipped in fondant or chocolate will please the little people—and who ever grows too old to enjoy a gingerbread man?

Russian Rocks.—Cream two-thirds of a cupful of butter, add one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and three well-beaten eggs. Sift three cupfuls of flour with one-half teaspoonful each of soda, clove, cinnamon and one-fourth teaspoonful of nutmeg; add one-half pound of raisins and the same of English walnuts, cut fine, to the flour mixture; alternate with one-half cupful of milk. Beat well and drop by spoonfuls on buttered baking sheet. These cookies are better after being kept one week.

Poached Eggs, Mustard Sauce.—Poach eggs and drain carefully, then roll on the wafer. Serve with a mustard sauce poured over them; garnish with parsley.

CONDUCTING RAIL TESTS IN CHICAGO

Urbana.—A party of University of Illinois faculty men working under the supervision of Prof. A. N. Talbot of the department of theoretical and applied mechanics leave this week to conduct tests of rails on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad in the west.

The tests are to be conducted under the auspices of the American society of civil engineers, the American railway engineering association and the American railway association, in conjunction with the University of Illinois.

The tests are to be made on the stresses and strains of rails as they are affected by the various locomotives used by the railroad. The tests probably will be conducted in Montana where the Northwestern line has its electrified system. The stresses and strains of a steam locomotive are to be compared with those of the electrical locomotives used on the line.

Snyder and daughter Helen, and Franklin Mathews.

Northminster Society Holds Meeting

The Missionary Society of Northminster church held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the church. This was the annual mother's meeting. Mrs. Carrie Joaquin was leader. Mrs. William Bieher read a very interesting paper on "The Mother and Daughter." Mrs. Henry Day read a story, "Mother's Vacant Chair." Mrs. James Scott sang a solo, "I Cannot Sing the Old Songs." Dr. Spoons gave a short talk using the thought that, "Jesus gave to us when on the cross, 'Behold Mother.'"

There was a good attendance and the meeting very interesting. After a short business session a social time was enjoyed and delicious refreshments served.

"Ready Maids" Met.

The "Ready Maids" Sunday school of First Baptist church were entertained last night by Mrs. Alfred Swinger at her home eight miles east of the city. The ladies motored to the country home, taking well filled baskets and enjoyed a jolly good time with games, contests and music. The special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jackson. Mr. Jackson has acted as teacher of the class since Mrs. C. O. Swift left the city.

Past Noble Grand Club Meets

The Past Noble Grand club of Rebekah Lodge No. 13 held a regular meeting Thursday evening at the home of Miss Joyce Estaque on East College avenue. The guests were entertained on the lawn, which had been very attractively decorated with Japanese lanterns. A short business session was held, at the conclusion of which came a pleasant social hour. The hostess served dairy refreshments during the evening. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. John Bowen on Lincoln avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Vasconcellos entertained a few of their relatives and friends at their home on North Fayette street Thursday evening at a picnic dinner on the lawn in honor of John Viera who will return next week to his home in Los Angeles California. # CLASSY FIELDS AND FAST TIME IN RACES AT MATINEE THURSDAY

All the Events Were Hotly Contested and Fast Time Made—Races Were Run Off In Splendid Shape—Large Crowd Present—Card Today Promises to be as Good

Classy fields and fast time marked the opening day's races of the official matinee of the Morgan County Fair Association at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon.

Not since the days of the old county fair in the early '90's has there been such an aggregation of high class horses seen here. Every race was hotly contested and the time in most instances was fast.

Despite the fact that there were four harness events and one running race on the card, Starter Kirby kept them moving with the result that a little after 6 o'clock the last race was finished.

Only one incident marred the afternoon's sport. That was the fifth heat of the 2:20 trot. In this event under the rules all horses not winning a heat are sent to the barn after the fourth heat. This left Lady Blue Bird and Binlico to fight it out for the final heat and race.

In the first two heats Lady Blue Bird looked to have the class of the field and won handily. However, Edwards with Binlico showed a surprising burst of speed in the third heat and coupled with a bad break by Lady Blue Bird won the heat and then came back and repeated in the fourth.

Naturally the crowd looked for a hot contest in the fifth heat. However, the two drivers acted as though they were out jogging their mounts for exercise. Lady Blue Bird took the lead and jogged the mile in 2:43 with Binlico several lengths behind.

This did not suit the crowd and likewise did not suit the judges. Starter Kirby called the drivers in front of the stand and told them it was the most disgraceful exhibition he had ever seen in his career of more than a half century on the race track.

Starter Kirby ordered the drivers to report back with their horses in twenty minutes to race the heat over again. At first the representative of Lady Blue Bird got belligerent and said he wouldn't do it. Mr. Kirby informed him if he failed to report that he would not start again this season and he thought better of the matter. Both horses came back and made more creditable showing in the sixth heat which Lady Blue Bird won in 2:26.

Perhaps the best race of the afternoon was the 2:14 pace. Fanny Price and George M. had a great battle in this race. The mare took the first heat, but George M. took the next three. The time was fast in all the heats. The last three being stepped in 2:14.

Both divisions of the 2:20 pace were both hard fought contests, despite the fact that they were won in straight heats. The first division had the fastest time, the second and third heats being stepped in the same time as the fastest time in the 2:14 pace.

N. T. Kirby as a starter, again gave satisfaction and got the horses off well, his work being satisfactory to drivers and spectators alike. He had a hard afternoon, several of the horses acting badly in the races.

The community band under the direction of J. Bart Johnson furnished excellent music during the afternoon and the spectators gave them frequent applause.

The judges were H. C. Beatty, Carrollton; Charles Campbell, Jerseyville; Charles Amos, White Hall. The timers were E. D. Pendleton, National Stock Yards East St. Louis, W. A. Master, H. E. Wheeler, Jacksonville.

The heats in detail of the various races and the summaries are given hereunder:

2:14 Pace—$200 Added Money

The 2:14 pace had nine starters. Dan Onward drew the pole.

In the draw for positions Lady Blue Bird got the pole. The Unexpected second, Eva Taylor third, Baron Forbes fourth, Victory Exponent fifth, Harry Putnam sixth, Binlico seventh, Ernestine Harvester eighth, Donna Wiggles ninth and Main Lady tenth.

They got the word the fourth time down. Lady Blue Bird took the lead and held it at the half. Eva Taylor made a bid down the back stretch but made a break and fell back and Lady Blue Bird came home winner by a length with Ernestine Harvester second, Main Lady third, The Unexpected fourth, Eva Taylor fifth, Binlico sixth, Baron Forbes seventh, Victory Exponent eighth and Harry Putnam distanced. The time was 2:23 1/4.

In the second heat the horses were acting badly and it took lots of scoring to get them off. When the word was finally given Lady Blue Bird took the lead at the half. In the back stretch Donna Wiggles moved up to the place and it was a driving finish down the stretch, Lady Blue Bird winning the heat with Donna Wiggles second, Victory Exponent third, Eva Taylor fourth, Binlico fifth, The Unexpected sixth, Main Lady seventh, Ernestine Harvester eighth, Baron Forbes ninth. Time 2:22 1/4.

The horses were given the word on the third score. Lady Blue Bird made a bad break just before reaching the quarter and Binlico stepped out in front and was never headed, winning the heat easily in 2:20 1/4 with Eva Taylor second, Main Lady third, Victory Exponent fourth. The word on the third score. Lady Blue Bird and Binlico raced like a team down the back stretch. Lady sixth, Lady Blue Bird seventh and Ernestine Harvester last.

They were given the word the first time down in the fourth heat. Binlico took the lead and was never headed. Lady Blue Bird was second, Eva Taylor third, and Donna Wiggles fourth.

In the fifth heat of the 2:30 trot only two horses, Binlico and Lady Blue Bird started all horses not winning a heat being sent to the barn. The horses got the word on the first score. Going around the first turn Lady Blue took the lead and held it all the way winning the heat easily in 2:43. The judges were not satisfied and Starter Kirby told the drivers that the exhibition was disgraceful and ordered the drivers to report back in twenty minutes for another heat.

Both horses reported on time for the sixth heat. Lady Blue Bird took the lead. Binlico made a bad break at the first turn and fell back. Edwards got him settled but he made another break and fell back. However, he got him settled and came fast in the stretch but could not quite reach the mare which won by a half length in 2:26 1/4.

ODD VERSION OF SHYLOCK

On the Japanese Stage Shakespeare's Famous Character is Made a Fisherman.

The globe trotter went to a performance of "The Merchant of Venice" recently. He had but recently returned from the Orient, where, he told his friends who were at the theater with him, he had seen a Japanese version of that Shakespearean play.

"It's interesting to note the changes they make in it," he remarked, according to the New York Sun. "Of course, they have to localize it, or else they'd miss the meaning of it altogether. For instance, the part of Shylock, as played in the Japanese 'Merchant' is not a Jew, because the Japanese could not understand the anti-Semitic feeling prevalent in certain of our occidental countries. Instead, he is pictured to them as a fisherman, which is rather a despicable type in Japan.

"Then Shylock does not cry for his pound of flesh. Instead, it is an inch of flesh he demands. The Japanese Shylock, when Antonio the merchant bares his breast, marks with a brush and paint a square inch on the latter's flesh. Just at the moment he is about to draw forth his knife, a longer and far more murderous looking one than any used in English productions, Portia is brought to the court in her dainty jinrikisha."

ORIGIN OF THE HAWAIIANS

Belief Has Been Held That They Are Descended From the Lost Tribes of Israel.

The origin of the Hawaiian people is still somewhat obscure. Oldest inhabitants of the islands told the earliest missionaries that the largest island was produced from a large egg, deposited by an immense bird upon the water, which, bursting, formed the present island. From the first land the other islands of the Hawaiian group developed automatically.

The conservative Hawaiians of early days stoutly held the opinion that the first human inhabitants of the islands descended from the gods, or were created by a miracle upon the islands. Some of the earliest American missionaries found conclusive evidence, to their minds, that the Hawaiians sprang from the lost ten tribes of Israel. The Rev. S. Dibble, in his "History of the American Mission," 1843, gives much space to tracing the parallels between customs and traditions of the Hawaiians and the ceremonies and scripture of the Jews.

Gentle Hearts.

Great minds—male and female—have gentle hearts. Frank Walton handled a frog as if he loved him. Cowper would not unnecessarily hurt a worm. Lincoln upset his White House cabinet to rescue a mother pig from a mire. Webster neglected the Supreme court to replace a baby robin that had fallen from its nest. . . . Walton, the father of fishers and fishermen, angled for the habits of fishes more than for their hides. The capture of a fish was insignificantly incidental to the main notion of his hours abroad—his divine love of the waters, the fields, the meadows, the skies, the trees and God's beautiful things that inhabit these. "Is the soul we seek to replenish, not the creed.—From 'The Persistent Angler,' by Charles Bradford.

Sparrow's Bravery Overdrawn. "The English sparrow," remarked the amateur ornithologist, "gets credit for a lot of combativeness and bravery he doesn't possess. He is supposed to drive other birds away, but I doubt if he does it. Certainly the robins are not afraid of him, and he has been heading before him on the lawns. Speaking of the robin, our red-chested friend is no coward. In my back yard two robins have their nest, and believe me, they don't allow other birds to molest it. They drive blackbirds away, helter skelter, and even bluejays, among the meanest of the feathered tribe, are not allowed to get too fresh. The robin is a peacocks bird at heart, but he is no professional pacifist by a long shot."—Detroit News.

Doctor Nature.

The young man had been ill all his life. Nobody seemed to know what his complaint was, but everybody he came in contact with agreed that he was ill. He looked it, and often said he was born that way. I defined his case the first day I met him—the city complaint, a complication of general under-the-weather-ness that is brought about by foul air, improper exercise, steady indoor work, irregularity, cigarettes, and incorrect food incorrectly eaten. He's well now. He went out in the woods for two weeks every three months for six years, and at present he's fat and solid.—From "The Determined Angler and the Brook Trout," by Charles Bradford.

A Fight for Reputation. A man going along a lonely road was set upon by two highwaymen. He fought desperately, but was finally overcome and searched. All that the bandits found was a dime. "He would never put up a fight like that for a dime." They searched again, but could find no more.

"Now, tell me," said the spokesman, "why you fought so we nearly had to kill you?" "Well," answered the victim, "the truth of the matter is I didn't want my financial condition exposed."—Harper's Magazine.

NEW PLAN OFFERED TO INCREASE RATE BIRTHS IN FRANCE

Another Wins Prize For New Theory Advanced.

Paris, July (By the Associated Press)—An essay under the title "Life or Death of France" has just won the Michelin 50,000 francs prize as giving the best means for increasing the birth rate of France. Its author is Paul Haury Young, a teacher, who while not proposing a new remedy, sets forth lucidly that the birth rate would increase if every family were allowed to cast as many votes as there are members in the family.

The French people, M. Young asserts, seem to willfully shut their eyes to the gravest question facing them—their country's depopulation while they demand assurances of other countries for safety by treaty, forgetting that safety must come from inside the country. France, the writer declares, must make itself strong enough to secure its own safety from outside attack.

Family Average Drops. The contribution of M. Young is regarded as an able one in the campaign to increase the birth rate undertaken by the Alliance Nationale, composed of many scientists and thinkers in an endeavor to arouse public opinion. The average French family, this organization points out, averaged four members a century ago; this percentage dropped to a fraction under the twenty years ago and since the war has fallen below an average of two, which, in time, means annihilation.

Actors Organize

Ten actors and actresses headed by Signorette Gretillat Vilbert, have formed an association and approached the city council with a view to being accepted as the successors to the late Sarah Bernhardt in the management of the Bernhardt theatre, which is city property.

They argue that there are too many directors who are not in the business from pure love of the art and the new association will be open to all authors able to show they possess talent.

The municipality has not yet replied, as the succession of the theatre is involved in legal technicalities, as have been all questions pertaining to leases since the war. When Madame Bernhardt died the city authorities notified her son that the theatre must be handed over at once in accordance with the provisions of the lease. Maurice Bernhardt protested and claimed the protection allowed by law to tenants, whereupon the authorities gave him six months in which to liquidate the affairs of the theatre.

Valued Cloth Missing

The other day Minister of Agriculture Cheron discovered that a table cloth, described as 32-cover size, was missing from the ministry. He notified the police but was too late as the woman responsible for the department's linen had fled. The incident aroused more than one smile among those knowing something about how easily for more important pieces of furniture have disappeared from the ministerial palaces.

The ministry of the interior, for example, was furnished with specimens of antique furniture of incalculable value. Many of these have been replaced by copies, the originals having been removed on the pretext of needing repairs. Among others was a set of sofa and arm chairs in Beauvais tapestry, which has had the tapestry replaced by a painted linen reproduction of the same coloring and general effect as the original.

Mrs. Wilson Morrow and little daughter Mildred were city shoppers from Alexander yesterday. T. E. McCarty was a city caller from Murrayville yesterday.

ILLINOIS CROPS SHOW SUBSTANTIAL GAIN THIS YEAR

Small Grains Have Also Shown Improvement

Springfield (By the Associated Press)—A report by the federal crop reporting service on the condition of corn, wheat and oats in Illinois indicates these crops will show a substantial increase in yield over last year.

The report compiled by A. J. Surra, agricultural statistician, issued today, says that corn acreage in Illinois has increased 2 per cent over that of last year with the present crop prospect about average. Small grains have shown improvement, the report adds, while the crop outlook for wheat and oats is no whitly above average for the state.

Individual Returns. "The returns from a large number of individual acreage inquiries from all sections of the state and other percentage reports asking for a comparison of last year, all show an increase of fully two per cent in acreage over that of last season, or a state acreage of 8,935,000 acres," according to the report. "This compares with 8,819,000 acres a year ago, and the five year average of 9,035,004 acres. The state condition is estimated to be 86 per cent of normal, indicating a probable production of 317,164,000 bushels, compared with 314,133,000 bushels last year and the five year averages of 352,559,000 bushels.

"The month of June was favorable for the growth of corn and the crop has shown rapid progress, largely overcoming the results of a late start in many central and western counties. As a result of wet field conditions, however, corn planting was delayed over much of the state. An unusual amount of replanting was necessary in the south and east where the advancement of growth in different fields varies widely. The intended acreage in this area has been reduced slightly below earlier expectations. Numerous fields are inclined to be more or less weedy, due to earlier unfavorable conditions for soil work.

Wheat Prospects. "Wheat prospects for the state improved during June and are now above average. The favorable outturn of the crop, particularly in the central and lower west central portions of the state, or the heavy wheat acreage area, accounts for the more optimistic wheat report this month. The areas of lesser importance in wheat production in the northern and eastern sections are mostly below average.

Chinch bugs have damaged the crop to some extent, in the upper central and eastern sections of the state but the damage has not been extensive further south in the heavy acreage territory. Wheat joint worm damage has been more general than for several years. The condition of 83 for the state on July 1 forecasts a crop of 57,532,000 bushels of winter wheat compared with the final production of 53,025,000 bushels last year and the five year average of 46,692,000 bushels. The state year prospect is 88, compared with the 10 year average of 90 for July 1.

Report on Oats. "The state oats condition on July 1 is estimated to be 85 per cent of normal, which promises a probable crop of about 144,000,000 bushels, compared with 110,000,000 bushels last year, and the average of 171,843,000 bushels. Oats were affected to some extent by the severe heat wave the latter part of June but rains and cooler weather brought relief during the closing week with the crop improving at the close of the month. The July 1 condition for the state is slightly above the average.

"Barley, which is largely located in northern Illinois shows a condition of 86 per cent compared with the 10 year average of 90 per cent. The handicap of a late and dry spring in the barley area accounts largely for the moderate prospect for this crop."

GENERAL STRIKE MARINE WORKERS BEING ORDERED

Given as Reason for Not Invading Port
Arthur

(By The Associated Press)

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, July 19.—There will be no invasion of Port Arthur by the Industrial Workers of the World. This statement was made by general organizer Sidney Terry at 11 o'clock tonight. He declared that a messenger had just arrived from New Orleans bearing orders from Harry G. Clark and John Shuskie of New York.

The reason given by Terry who was in company with William Green and Robert Bell two other I. W. W., who were arrested last week and are awaiting trial on vagrancy charges, is that a general strike is being ordered which will take marine workers out of service in every port and the higher officials of the organization do not consider it advisable to concentrate in any one section and those who were enroute to Port Arthur are being turned back at New Orleans.

Member's Statement.
Terry stated that he and his three companions, all officials of the organization division of the I. W. W., were the only outside members who have so far arrived in Port Arthur. He said that they would remain here and stand trial when their vagrancy cases were called, probably tomorrow and would remain in Port Arthur to await further orders.

"If the strike comes soon," said Terry, "we will open headquarters in Port Arthur. Terry stated that New Orleans was to be the centralization point for the Port Arthur invasion and that already a considerable number had arrived there by vessel from both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. They were awaiting the arrival of more men when the orders were received and this morning a messenger started for Port Arthur arriving tonight with instructions to the four organizers here and advising them that the invasion had been called off.

The men had been ordered back to New York according to Terry's statement to The Associated Press here, while those from the west coast have been ordered to return to strategic points to await orders for the general strike which may come in a short time.

The strike is to be a protest, according to the organizers, against the imprisonment of prisoners accused of violating war time laws and also against the action of the California courts in sentencing 27 members of the organization last week.

HAS WORLD RECORD FOR CONCRETE LAYING

Springfield—What is considered by the state highway department as a world's record for the laying of concrete pavement was attained last week when a crew employed by W. F. Smith constructed 1,664 feet in a single day.

This is the greatest day's run this year and marks a new high record in laying Illinois' 1923 pavements. For the week ending July 5, 26.13 miles of road were built, making a total of 322.24 for the year thus far.

There were 112 mixers at work with 9,000 men and 2,000 teams employed.

The Chicago Heights Coal company holds the record of having laid the greatest amount of pavement during the week. Their total shows 4,512 feet constructed for the week. The great week's run this year was 5,805 feet attained by W. C. Meneely company.

DEATHS

Boston
The death of Mrs. Laura Frances Boston, a resident of Roodhouse, occurred at Passavant hospital Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Deceased was born in Greene county on July 11, 1895, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Atlas Clark, who survive her. She was married to Claude E. Clark October 15, 1919, and to this union one son, Russell was born. Surviving are the parents, husband, son, three brothers, Ira Clark, White Hall; Troy Clark Roodhouse; Noble Clark Hillview; and two sisters, Mrs. Lora Overby of Montana and Miss Cora Clark of White Hall. She was a member of the Baptist church at White Hall and had been a resident of Greene county all her life. The body was taken to Roodhouse yesterday for burial preparations. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Johnson
James T. Johnson, a life time resident of Morgan county passed away at his home 204 West Greenwood avenue Thursday morning at 6:45 o'clock after illness of two years.

Decedent was born in the Buckhorn neighborhood April 3, 1863 and spent his life in that neighborhood until four years ago when he became a resident of Jacksonville. For the greater part of his life he was engaged in farming but also worked at times as the carpenter's trade. He was married to Miss Effie P. Mick in Jacksonville on April 3, 1901. He is survived by the widow, but has no living children or brothers or sisters. He was a member of the Masonic order. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Andrews
Word has been received in Jacksonville of the recent death of Mrs. Cordelia May Andrews at her home in Rockbridge at the age of nearly twenty three years.

Deceased was born near Hot-tick August 9, 1900 and spent her early life there. Her parents being Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roller. At the age of sixteen she entered nurse training in Jacksonville, later serving in both hospitals, and also doing private nurse work in this city. She later went to Alton where she was a private nurse in the family of John M. Olin, being particularly skilled in the care of infants and children. She was married on June 16, 1921 to Charles Lee Andrews who with an infant daughter survive. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Melba Roller of Hettick; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Jones, Waverly; Mrs. Lizzie Cline, Pawnee; and Mrs. Edith Hills, Franklin; and one brother, William Roller, Modesto. She joined the First Baptist church in Jacksonville in 1919 and was a consistent Christian woman.

Funeral services were held in Rockbridge at 11 o'clock, July 12th and the body was interred at Brighton.

Mrs. Willis Ruby of Arcadia was a shopper in the business district yesterday.

A "RIGHT CLEVER NAME"

Wonder What the Unfortunate
Youngster Will Think About
It When He Grows Up.

The woman, to oblige a friend, recently included in a trip up town the delivery of a message to that friend's laundress, Eliza Jackson, the laundress, was colored and lived, according to directions, on the fourth floor of a dingy brick apartment in Harlem. The woman, having identified the street and number, climbed what appeared to be a secret staircase that grew no lighter as she ascended.

Mrs. Jackson was discovered leaning pillow cases in an apartment consisting of one room and laundryette. About the room swarmed several little Jacksons. The youngest was one of those irresistible chocolate-colored infants with eyes like brown pumies. The woman captivated immediately. Having stated her errand she sat down to court him and, of course, asked his name.

"His name is Fertilizer—Fertilizer Jackson," said his mother, with her hands set proudly upon her hips.

"I reckon that's a right clever name and high soundin'," explained Mrs. Jackson complacently. "Yuh see, his father's name's Ferdinand, an' mine's Eliza, an' so we jes' nat'ally put one and two together, an' called him Fertilizer."—New York Sun.

GASES TO FOIL THIEVES

Really Ingenious Contrivance That Will Not Be Appreciated by the "Crackmen."

Some of our property losses have resulted from the inroads of crackmen who succeeded in getting into a number of our vaults and safes.

Recently an inventive fellow with a knowledge of deadly gases decided to capitalize his understanding of poison gases, so he perfected a fragile glass container that is now being employed to protect all kinds of depositories from thieves. Any movement of the door to which the gas container is attached, or any unusual jar, such as would result from an explosion, breaks the container and releases the fluid, which kills the burglars instantly. Any effort to remove the vial by drilling it from the door likewise releases the gas.

It would be a grand thing, from the standpoint of safeguarding property, if some of these gas containers could be attached to many other kinds of private possessions; but such a suggestion would likely be inconsistent with my present effort to set down ways to conserve life.—Floyd W. Parsons in the Saturday Evening Post.

Potters Powder Puffs.
Potters was famous in days gone by for the great victory over the French when the Black Prince took King John of France a prisoner, and waited on him as his guest. But Potters is best known today for its geese, which have the purest white feathers of any species, and their skins are readily transmuted into "fur." It is mainly from the soft plumage of these birds that powder puffs are made. The whiteness of the feathers is attributed to bathing in the local waters, which contain salts of lithia. Humbler parts of the geese's wardrobe become dusting brushes, toothpicks, and other heroic but useful wares. The goose farmers of Potters have bred geese for centuries mainly on account of their skins and down.

GIRL WHO WAS LOST IN SWAMP EVINCES NO SORROW FOR ACT

Fled After Beating Stepmother on Head
With Club

(By The Associated Press)
WAUSAU, Wis., July 19.—Unable to furnish $1500 bail, the bond under which she is held to the district court on a charge of assault with intent to kill, Mary Lawando, 20 years old is confined at the county jail here. Mary was captured last night after a nine day hunt thru a great swamp six miles south of here where she fled after beating her step-mother Mrs. Anna Lawando over the head with a heavy stick, inflicting injuries from which she is recovering. Mary confessed to the attack on her step-mother and this afternoon was taken to court where her attorney entered a plea of not guilty for the girl, when the complaint charging her with assault with intent to kill and murder was read. She withstood the ordeal well, a frightened look coming into her eyes when the clerk read the charge and low sobs escaping her as she was led back to the jail after the court had fixed the bail, which it was said tonight, the girl had little opportunity of raising.

Eats and Sleeps Well.
Altho she is very nervous, Mary's appetite, whetted by a nine day diet of virtually nothing but berries, she found in the swamp has not been impaired by the seriousness of the charge she faces which, upon conviction carries a penalty of from one to thirty years imprisonment. She ate a hearty meal at noon today, according to Sheriff Arthur Siewert and also tonight. Last night when taken to the hospital was the first time she had slept in a bed for nine nights. Mary shed but few tears and talked almost as little. She has not said she is sorry, neither has she been inclined to tell a detailed story of what she encountered in the swamp.

Miss Helen Childs was a visitor in Jacksonville Thursday from Palmyra.

SUSPECTS OF MAIL ROBBERY ARE HELD

Two men believed to know something of the theft of three mail sacks at Chapin early this week, were taken from a Wabash freight yesterday by Deputies Strawn and Edgar Jones. The older of the two gave his name as W. C. Hall and the younger claims to be D. J. Doyle. Both say they are from Nashville, Tenn.

A number of new fountain pens were found in the pockets of the suspects, and these are believed to have come out of one of the mail sacks, which was not recovered. The men are held in the county jail on charges of trespassing on railway property. The warrant was sworn out by the special agent of the road, F. W. Snyder. The case will be given a thorough investigation.

KIWANIANS ENDORSE COUNTY HEALTH WORK

Club Passes Resolutions Urging Continuance of Rockefeller Appropriation for Department in Morgan—Three New Members Join Club at Meeting Yesterday.

Jacksonville Kiwanis Club at its meeting yesterday at Peacock Inn expressed its hearty endorsement of the work of the Morgan County Health Department and requested that a continuation of the financial assistance of the International Health Board in order that this work in Morgan County may be carried forward.

Reports were made by committees in charge of purchasing of two large electric light advertising sign boards at the entrances to the city on the hard road. In co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce two signs have been purchased. The bulletin work is being done by Thos. Cusack and Co. A committee will choose the location this week. These signs will be erected in the near future.

The Boy Scout work of the club reported on. Tests have been made of the spring water at the Kiwanis Camp site east of the city and changes in the outlet of the spring are to be made by the club to make the water safe. Three new members were introduced today:

Thomas M. Coyle, Coco-Cola Bottling Works.
Jewel Scott, City Clerk.
W. B. Rogers, Office Supplies.

Kiwanis Club will not adjourn this summer on account of important committee work being carried forward.

The principal speaker for the day was Mr. L. W. Schake, M. R. of Sales of the American Multi-graph Sales Company of Cleveland, Ohio. His subject was salesmanship, and advertising, and included outline for use of direct mail advertising, and outline for use of direct mail advertising, dealer's helps, local dealers advertising, circular letters, and the story of many successes in business accomplished through these channels.

The resolutions adopted in connection with the Morgan County Health Department and directed to Dr. John A. Ferrell, director for the United States International Health Board, 61 Broadway, New York City was as follows:

Whereas, the Morgan County Health Department by its constructive effort has contributed largely to the advancement of the public health in Jacksonville and Morgan County, and

Whereas, an emergency exists which may make it necessary to abandon this work because of a lack of funds,

Be it resolved, that the Jacksonville Kiwanis Club hereby expresses its hearty endorsement of the Morgan County Health Department program and earnestly petitions the International Health Board of the Rockefeller Foundation to continue its financial assistance in order that this work may be carried forward, and

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Dr. John A. Ferrell, Director for the United States, of the International Health Board.

SECOND CLOVERLEAF JOB TO LOCAL FIRMS

Four Contracting Firms of City Share in $40,000 Section, to be Started This Fall—First Portion of Company's Office Near Completion.

Bids were opened and contracts yesterday on the second unit of the Cloverleaf building, on East State street. The size of this structure is to be 120 by 40 feet on East State street. The contracts let amount to about $40,000. Operations will begin as soon as the company is able to move into the first section of the building, which is now being completed.

Contracts were awarded as follows:
General Contract, S. G. Chumley.

Cutstone, J. M. Vasconcellos. Plumbing, Doyle Bros. Wiring, Doyle Bros. Floodlighting, G. A. Seiber. Lineoleum, Armstrong Cork Co. Lockers, Durant Steel Locker Co.

Floors, Douglas-Lynch Co. Lift and Dumb Waiter, D. A. Matot Co.

Hardware, H. L. Smith. Blinds, Western Blind and Screen Co.

The second unit of the Cloverleaf building is to be uniform in every respect with the first section, now nearing completion. The material used being gray Bedford Lime Stone.

The lower floors will be occupied by two store rooms 20 by 110 feet. The second floor will be devoted exclusively to the use of the Company. This section of the building will include most of the service plant, including large work room, rest rooms and locker rooms for men and women, and an electric freight lift from the basement to the second floor. This section of the building is to be completed about November 1st. At this time the company will move out of the offices in the old Calhoun Building on the corner of East and Court streets. It is anticipated that the work on laying down this building will be begun about January 1st, and the third section of the Cloverleaf building will be placed on this site.

The first section of the Cloverleaf building is nearing completion. Carpenters are now busy laying the maple flooring in the offices, and the main entrance stairs are practically ready for the laying of the linoleum flooring, which is to cover the stairs and the main reception room on the second floor. This reception is to be finished in pannels of birch mahogany to a height of six feet. It will contain the telephone exchange, seats for customers, and the window of the cashier's cage will open from it.

From the reception room, one gains entrance to the main office. This room, as far as completed in the first section, is lighted by two large skylights. It will form the central portion of the entire plant. Extending around the outside walls are the private offices. The private office of President F. H. Rowe is located in the southwest corner, with windows on two sides opening on Court and State streets. It is to be finely furnished, and when finished will be one of the pleasantest and most convenient private offices in the city.

The main office is to be covered with battleship linoleum. Several steel trucks will be used to convey valuables and papers about the offices and from the vault to the cashier's cage.

One of the most interesting features of the plant is the vault. This will occupy the very center of the completed structure, extending from the basement to the top of the building, five floors in all. The entrance to the vault is from the main office on the second floor, and access to the various floors is gained by means of a circular staircase inside the vault. The walls of this part of the plant are ten inches thick and absolutely fireproof. A large fan inside the vault will keep up a circulation of fresh air brought in from the outside.

RULES FOR SITEEDERS

Take your car, when you choose, and start out on your trip, with a lot of cheap booze, in a flask, on your hip; absorb half the contents to give life a tang; tell the world that you lack sense; and let them go hang; pick out some good street in the town where you live; run down all you meet if the way they don't give in approaching a crossing, don't slow down your gait; all must know who is bossing, or else take their fate; when you've cleaned up the by-ways and knocked them all down, get on the big highways that lead out of town; now you can have pleasure, so go till you 'bust'; take every one's measure and feed them the dust; don't stop for bad weather, or bad roads, or fog; hit everything, whether it's chicken or hog; if the wife of some farmer is taking a ride, don't honk to alarm her—just throw her aside; make the folks look behind them, make them feel danger's thrill; if there's wash-out, don't mind them; speed up and down hill; while the stars are still twinkling, if you find it a task to keep your eyes blinking, kill the rest of the flask; now, you're chuck full of whisky, just cut the thing loose; you know it's risky, but then—what's the use? speed up on the level till something goes wrong, then—go to the Devil; that's where you belong!

KEELER, AT 80, GOES TO WORK

After fourteen years of enforced idleness because of ill health, J. H. Keeler, widely known Maryland citizen, has gained forty pounds at the age of eighty years and gone back to work every day. Mr. Keeler, who resides at 3706 Thirty Second street, Mt. Rainier, Md., gives entire credit for his extraordinary rehabilitation to Tanlac.

"My stomach was in such terrible condition I could hardly digest a thing," says Mr. Keeler. "It would swell to nearly twice its normal size and I would have frightful pains through my stomach and back. I felt so weak, dizzy and miserable work was out of the question. In fact, my friends gave me up on three or four different occasions."

"Five months ago I began taking Tanlac and improved from the very first bottle. I now eat anything on the table, have gained forty pounds and am back at work every day. Actually, I feel like a boy again. It would be ungrateful of me not to praise Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

SPORT THAT IS STRENUOUS

Angling With Rod and Line for Swordfish Can Be Guaranteed to Furnish Thrills.

Swordfishing for broadbill swordfish with rod and reel no doubt heads the list of the most strenuous kinds of angling. This remarkable form of sport has been practiced for a number of years on the Pacific coast in the neighborhood of Santa Catalina island and to a less extent, and more recently, along our own Atlantic seaboard.

In many respects it is the most fascinating of all forms of fishing. C. K. Stillman writes in the Health Builder. There is considerable difficulty in finding the prospective victims as they swim or float solitary near the surface of the sea, and more so when found in pairs, suading them to bite. Once hooked, the swordfish is a very resourceful antagonist and hard to keep on the line. The angler never knows what is going to happen next and is never entirely free from apprehension that the fish may attack his boat. No fishing is more productive of super thrills and of grievous disappointment than the swordfish and the handling of one fish is a season's triumph. Many have gone out year after year for swordfish without success, but they keep on doggedly in the knowledge that a lucky turn of events may at any moment bring achievement.

DAYS WHEN WOMEN RULED
By Far the More Important Sex in Early Days of the World, is Recent Statement.

Recent research, by some French professors, into the ways of women of a hundred thousands years ago, have given an unexpected jolt to preconceived ideas. Now the professors declare that woman, in the days of our cave-dwelling ancestors, was regarded as the more important sex. Men held a secondary position, tolerated for the sake of the food and skins provided. Women ruled, and were the inventors of the earliest arts and sciences. It was the woman's ingenuity which devised snares for animals and made plans for storing food against times of scarcity. Women taught ways of making clothing from skins, and animals, and by the efforts of their brains improved the lot of all the human race. Woman's cunning and wit were the outcome of her lack of physical strength, which obliged her to resort to strategy rather than force. On the whole, the prehistoric woman apparently held the same position and ruled man in the same manner that she does today, according to these gentlemen, who may, however, have a different opinion for us tomorrow.

Love of Trees.
Love of trees is almost a religion to the Jugo-Slav peasant. The new kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes boasts some of the oldest forests in the world. During the Middle Ages wood from the provinces east of the Adriatic was exported to Venice, where it was made into ships and furniture, and cabinets—some of the far-famed works of art that have survived the early renaissance.

One of the native picturesque customs deals with the choosing of a tree for a yule log at Christmas time, says the Detroit News. Without this yule log, or "badnjak," as it is known in Slovenia, no Christmas is complete and the family is too poor to have one. The first chip that flies when the tree is being felled is placed in the milk, the beehive, the hen roost, anywhere that the housewife especially desires prosperity. In some regions the chips of the badnjak are all gathered up and presented to members of the family and to the animals of the farm.

President Tyler's Love Affairs.
John Tyler, tenth President of the United States, was married twice, and in each case it was a marriage of affection. His first wife was Letitia Christian, daughter of Robert Christian, one of the best known men of Virginia. It might almost be called a boy and girl affair, but they were married and lived happily together for 30 years. The second wife of the President was Julia Gardiner. She married the President while he was still in office, and after his death went to Richmond, where she spent the remainder of her life.

Most Americans—regarding him in a superficial way—think of Tyler as one of the prosaic, matter-of-fact Presidents of the United States, yet in the wooing of Miss Christian he gave proof that he possessed an ardent temperament—the temperament of a love-stricken and romantic young man.

Uruguay—A Sketch.
The broad plains of Uruguay in the amber April that is autumn here. The vintage season, great black and rose-colored muscat grapes, whose crisp skin crackles under my teeth. Swarthy laborers picking heavy clusters. Dashing horsemen, their silver stirrups inlaid with gold, in white ponchos, broad sombreros, with long, flowing scarfs fluttering over their shoulders, shout a greeting to the rhythm of their horses' hoofs, and speed on. Gardens of pink laurel and red hibiscus. Grand avenues of eucalyptus, silencing in the sun, their trembling foliage outlined high above against the blue vaults of heaven. Peons singing in the vineyards, or after some improvising rustic chants to the accompaniment of their guitars, vineyard festival.—Renée Fromont in La Revue de L'Amerique Latine.

More Auto Suggestion.
"You sold me a car about two weeks ago."
"How do you like it?"
"I want you to tell me everything you said about that car all over again. I'm getting discouraged."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Cost of Producing Wheat
The basis for the following statements are the Farm Management studies made by the College of Agriculture in Champaign and Piatt counties in 1922. The results from five typical farms are included below. The operating expense on an average was $15.42 per acre. Interest on investment $12.51 per acre; making an average cost of producing an acre of wheat, $27.93. It doesn't require a prophet to see that there is no money in producing wheat at present prices. In 1922 it took 12 hours of man labor; 35 hours of horse labor, estimated at $2.40 and $3.50 respectively; seed $1.70; machinery $1.00; twine 30 cents; fuel 20 cents; threshing $1.00; general farm expense $2.40; miscellaneous operating expense 50 cents; and interest on investment $12.50 making a standard cost of $22.50 per acre to produce wheat. This second set of figures is fairly accurate.

Wheat Facts
On July 1st the U. S. Department of Agriculture estimated that we would have 581,000,000 bushels of winter wheat and 236,000,000 bushels of spring wheat. From July to May 1921-22 the export was 261,207,000 for the same period from 1922-23, 209,042,000. The acreage in the U. S. in 1921-22 was 61,230,000; 1922-23, 58,253,000, a decrease of 4.9 per cent. The world production only amounts to one-tenth of one per cent, there being an eight per cent increase in India and 7.6 per cent in Africa. Why the low price? The carry-over is said to be larger than last year and European inquiry for crop delivery has been very light. The statement is also made, that Canadian wheat now barred from our markets in the United States, is out-selling us in foreign markets. The statement has also been made in a circular by the National City bank in New York City, that speculators are suspicious of the Capper-Tinker act which requires commission houses to report the names of speculators who trade in quantities above a certain amount.

TEACHERS' EXAMS OPEN HERE TODAY

The county teachers' examinations will open today and continue thru Saturday at the high school building here. The number taking the examinations is not expected to be as large as last year. The state examining board has sent out a list of texts, to be used as the basis of examinations during the coming year and until June 29, 1924. Examinations during the next two days are under the supervision of Superintendent H. H. Vaseconcellos, assisted by W. B. Lowery.

Following is the list of texts sent out by the state board:

(1) Pedagogy for first grade and second grade elementary certificates.

Bagley's "Classroom Management" published by MacMillan Company.

(2) Pedagogy for high school and special certificates—

Ingis "Principles of Secondary Education" published by Houghton Mifflin and Company.

(3) General Science for second grade certificate—

Hessler's "A First Year of Science" published by H. Sanborn Co.

(4) For examination for supervisory certificate—

(a) History of Education—

Graves' "A Student's History of Education" published by MacMillan Company.

(b) School Administration—

Cubberley's "School Administration" published by Houghton Mifflin and Company.

(c) Educational Psychology—

Cameron's "Psychology of the School" published by the Century Company.

MYERS BROS. PLAYS HERE SUNDAY

Local fans are promised one of the closest and hardest fought games of base ball ever witnessed in Jacksonville when the Myers Brothers of Springfield come for a tilt with the Indians. Manager Smith is strengthening for this game and the opposing team will pitch Dove against our Ira Fanning. Anyone who is wise to local semi-pro dope knows the reputation that Dove enjoys in this part of the state and Fanning's record speaks for itself. Christopher will be out of the lineup Sunday on account of the injury to his ankle last Sunday when he slid into second base and badly wrenched the ankle, but he will probably be in uniform and handle the team from the bench.

VANCE SHUTS CINCIS OUT A SECOND TIME

BROOKLYN, July 19.—Dazzy Vance shut out Cincinnati for the second time this season, allowing them four hits. Not a visitor reached third base and only three reached second. The score was 1 to 0. The winning run was made off Benton who also allowed four hits. Nine Brooklyn runners were forced at second which is considered a record in one game. Score: Cincinnati 000 000 000—0 4 4 Brooklyn 010 000 000—1 5 0 Benton, Keck and Wingo; Vance and Deberry.

Mrs. J. P. Huff of Virginia called at local shops yesterday.

Notice to all Owners of Victrola and Talking Machines

We Will Oil Your Machine

Any Time During the Last Two Weeks in July

This is free and with no obligation on your part. We shall care for the orders as they come in. All you have to do is to call over the phone or call in person as you choose, and one of our men will call at your home and oil your machine free. This offer does not mean the repacking of machines. The last two weeks of July being the dull season, we want you to become acquainted with our service. Consequently we are using this means to show our good will.

So if you have a Victrola or Talking Machine—Get your order in at once.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

STOCKS MOVE BRISKLY IN TODAY'S MARKET

FINANCIAL.

Total stock sales 642,000

Twenty industrials averaged 91.35; net gain 1.34.

High 1923—105.88; low 87.64.

Twenty railroads averaged 80.05; net gain .80.

High 1923—90.63; low 76.85.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Stocks moved up briskly in today's market and the volume of transactions was impressive for the first time recently.

Perhaps the outstanding feature was the fact that prices moved upward with the same facility that had been noted as they fell downward on short selling and liquidation.

Emphatic gains were registered in all quarters of the list and occasional realizing sales were readily digested by buying for the account of short interests.

Sizeable buying orders from commission houses testified to increased public participation.

While market observers were chary of making over-optimistic inferences from today's cheerful tone, the improved tone of the market had some backing in dispatches from overseas indicating possibility of agreement on the Ruhr occupation tangle.

Little attention, however, was paid to outside news developments and the recent pronounced advance in miscellaneous shares spread to the usual leaders which closed a point or more above yesterday's final levels.

U. S. Steel moved up 12, while some of the independent steels recorded greater gains. Republic Steel preferred for instance, gaining four points. Studebaker was very active and closed 3 1/2 points higher.

United States government bonds were held relatively steady with slight improvement in the second and third liberty 4 1/2s.

TAIL HAS ITS FUNCTION

Different Reasons for Different Movements, According to Eminent Italian Professor.

Animals' tails have various functions, Prof. Giuseppe Renato tells us in a published study of their uses, the New York Times states. The tail of a dog, says the professor, is, as we all know, an index of his psychological state; he raises and wags it, under the impression of joy, lowers it when afflicted and trails it between his legs when frightened. Why, then, may we not believe that dogs have a cunil language, and that the various movements of the tail form a method of communication between them?

The professor points out that among cattle and beasts of burden the tail is a weapon of defense against insects which, in the undomesticated state of these animals, may often have meant the saving of their lives. He says that in the early struggle for existence in cattledom and horsedom the question of survival of the fittest was purely a matter of which had the strongest tail. This resulted in the development of the muscles of the cow and horse to a remarkable degree.

When a horse is struck on the back with a whip it switches the spot with its tail. The horse knows it is a whip and not an insect, but the reflex muscles of its tail are so highly developed that it instinctively switches before the horse has time to telegraph to his brain and put in a stop order.

A cow finds it less fatiguing to keep up a perpetual side to side motion of its tail than to indulge in the nervous, energetic one which the horse upon occasion employs.

EVINCE INTEREST IN MAN

Lower Animals Believed to Look Upon Human Biped as Very Much One of Themselves.

That animals look upon man as one of themselves, and not as an object entirely beyond their horizon, is evidenced by the remarkable interest and curiosity regarding him and his doings shown by wild creatures, and by their desire to make friends with him as long as their confidence has not been met by rough rebuke and persecution, which is, alas! the usual response given by the destroyer of creation to such friendly advances.

It is our own fault only, if birds all the world over are not even now on the same footing of familiarity with us as were the birds of the Monte Alverna when St. Francis of Assisi arrived there; or the birds of the Falklands and the Galapagos islands when Darwin visited them; or as the birds of southern Morocco are at the present day, or were, at least, under Mohammedan rule, a few years ago.

But even birds, which have learned at their cost that to come within reach of man is an infinitely greater risk than to approach a lizard or a snake, will still, when they believe themselves unobserved, and while taking all necessary precautions, often give way to the feeling of curiosity with which the appearance of the long biped in unexpected localities and on unexpected occasions inspires them.—Hans Coudenhove in the Atlantic Monthly.

Pastorals.

Pastoral literature must not be confounded with that which has for its subject the lives and ideas, and the emotions of simple and unsophisticated mankind, far from the centers of our complex civilization. The two may be in their origin related, and they occasionally, as it were, stretch out feelers towards one another, but the pastoral or tradition lies in its essence as far from the human document of humble life as from a volume of pastoral theology.

Thus the shepherds of pastorals are primarily and distinctively shepherds; they are not mere rustics engaged in sheepcraft as one out of many of the employments of mankind. As soon as the natural shepherd-life had found an objective setting in conscious artistic literature, it was felt that there was, after all, a difference between hoeing turnips and pasturing sheep; that the one was capable of a particular literary treatment which the other was not.—W. R. Greg.

The Proper Thing.

A man went into a bakery the other day. "I'm getting married next week," he began, "and I want to buy a wedding cake." "I suppose you know, sir," said the shopgirl, "that it's the latest thing to choose wedding cakes which harmonize with one's business or profession. For instance, an athlete would have a cup cake, a musician an oat cake, a man who gouges his friends a sponge cake, a pianist a pound cake, and so on. What, may I ask, is your calling?" "I am a doctor," the bridegroom answered. "In that case, then," said the girl, smiling, "we would, of course, prescribe an angel cake."

Make the Children a Scrap-Book. Start a historical scrap-book for the children. Put into it pictures and items of unusual interest dealing with important public characters and events. When they grow older allow the children to do their own selecting of articles and their own pasting. If encouraged in this work they will complete the book when they are grown up, and will have not only a book of much interest and information, but will have a liking for history (history which will be real and concrete to them), not developed so easily by any other method.

The Unkind Critic.

"I'm going in for athletics," remarked the thin, energetic girl. "Would you advise golf or tennis?" "I think the costume of either sport would be becoming," answered Miss Cayenne. "All I should advise you against is swimming."

George Hense and daughter journeyed to the city from Mount Sterling yesterday to attend the races.

For Successful Canning

You can put up all your fruits and vegetables in jig time if you own a Florence Oil Cook Stove.

For the Florence works accurately and well. It brings comfort and ease all the time you are in the kitchen.

Touch a lighted match to the asbestos kindler. Quickly you have the right heat for cold-pack canning, sterilizing jars, or for gentle cooking—all important in successful canning.

For any cooking, this well-constructed, easily-operated stove is equally dependable.

The Florence is easy to clean, and needs but ordinary care. Since it burns kerosene, it is economical.

Drop in our store the next time you are in the neighborhood. We shall be pleased to show you exactly how the Florence works.
